

Updated: 04/17/2017

Brent Purkable
History of Science Department
University of Oklahoma
purkable@ou.edu

EDUCATION:

B.A., Biblical Languages, Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, OK, 2007
M.A., Biblical Exegesis, Wheaton College, Wheaton, IL, 2009
M.A., History of Science, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK, 2015

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Middle School and High School Teacher, Veritas Classical Academy, Oklahoma City, OK, 2009-2013.

Teaching Assistant, Department of the History of Science, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK, Spring 2014.

Research Assistant, University of Oklahoma Libraries, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK, 2013-Present.

OU Academy of the Lynx Coordinator, 2014-Present.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS:

“Libraries as makers of OER: A Pilot Project,” with Kerry Magruder, OpenEd 2015, Annual Conference, Vancouver, B.C., 11/19/2015.

“The Open Educational Resources of Galileo's World,” K20 Innovative Learning Institute, Norman, OK, 12/3/2015.

“Galileo's World Exhibition Site - An Open Educational Experience,” with Twila Camp, University of Oklahoma Academic Tech Expo, Norman, OK, 1/15/2016.

“The Role of Proclus within Sixteenth-Century Debates over the Ontology of Mathematics,” Midwest Junto for the History of Science, Norman, OK, 4/2/2016.

“The Role of Proclus in Shaping Renaissance Mathematics,” History of Science Society Annual Meeting, Atlanta, GA, 11/4/2016.

INVITED TALKS:

“What is the History of Science,” “Should the History of Science be Rated X?” “What is Gravity?” Oklahoma Baptist University, MSP K-12 Workshop, July 2014.

“The Impact of Women in the World of Galileo,” University Women's Association Spring Luncheon, Norman, OK, 4/30/2016.

“An Introduction to Leonardo da Vinci,” Oklahoma City Astronomy Club, Oklahoma City, OK,
4/11/2016.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

History of Science Society
Midwest Junto of the History of Science

RESEARCH LANGUAGES:

Ancient Hebrew
Ancient Greek
Arabic
French
Latin
Spanish